

CEBC & ECIC Investment and Foreign Relations Committee Cordially invites you to attend a forum addressing

"Opportunities for Developing Egyptian-African Economic Relations in Light of Current Challenges"

The African continent boasts enormous potential and wealth, which can provide significant opportunities to enhance intra-trade, drive joint investment, and achieve sustainable development for the continent's various countries.

In recent years, Egyptian-African relations have witnessed significant development, but they have not lived up to expectations due to the many obstacles and challenges that hinder the development of economic relations. This requires a greater role for banks and financial institutions, by providing innovative solutions targeting financing infrastructure, manufacturing, trade, and stimulating the private sector.

In this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Council for International Cooperation have the honor to invite you to attend it's an upcoming forum
