

The efforts of the Egyptian diplomacy have not stopped in the past years in facing the attempts being made to distort Egypt's external image and to restore Egypt to its leading position on the international scene; but through serious and effective moves, it has also been able to play its prominent role in all regional and global issues. However, despite the successes and gains achieved, there are some difficult files and challenges that still surround the region and a number of Arab countries, which require the Egyptian Foreign Ministry to continue its intensive efforts and moves to achieve and mitigate their effects.

In this context the CEBC & ECIC have the pleasure to cordially invite you to its upcoming event with:
