

During the past years, the Ministry of International Cooperation has succeeded in strengthening Egypt's relations with all partners and international financing institutions, and this has emerged in many continuous agreements to support various economic, social and developmental sectors to contribute to advancing sustainable development efforts. But have the ministry's priorities and plans changed with its international partners after the outbreak of the new Corona-virus, especially in light of its negative effects that affected all world economies?

In this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Business Council for International Cooperation will hold its next forum which brings together

The limited attendance (for members only) beside an online live streaming
