

Over the past seven years, the electricity and renewable energy sector in Egypt have written a true success story, according to the testimony of many international institutions, as the government's plans succeeded in transforming the electricity file from scarcity to abundance and ending all crises.

The government's efforts to diversify energy sources continue to secure and meet the country's needs and support major development plans, through many ambitious projects that contribute to attracting foreign investments and enhance Egypt's position in the global energy market.

this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Business Council for International Cooperation will hold its next forum which brings together
