

During the past period, the Egyptian economy has received many praises from various international institutions, thanks to the achievements witnessed by its various indicators, to reflect its solidity and ability to face all crises, especially the “Corona” pandemic.

Financial policies played a major role in these successes, as a package of measures and measures were taken to support development efforts, preserve the gains of the first phase of the economic reform program, enhance social protection, and improve public money management.

But despite these successes, there are many challenges, including controlling the budget deficit, reducing public debt, and increasing the spending rate as a result of the repercussions of Corona.

this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Business Council for International Cooperation will hold its next forum which brings together
