

Egypt's water resources management is facing enormous challenges, in light of the continuous population growth, the increasing risks of climate change, the fixed share of the Nile River, in addition to the repercussions of the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (GERD), which heighten concerns over the potential impact on Egypt's water quota. On its part, the Egyptian government has adopted ambitious strategies and plans to develop and efficiently manage its water resources, safeguard its historical rights to the Nile waters, and enhance water sustainability in order to pursue economic.

In this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Business Council for International Cooperation will hold its next forum

With:

H.E. Dr. Hany Sewilam
Minister of Water Resources and Irrigation

Moderated by:

Eng. Motaz Raslan
Chairman
Canada Egypt Business Council

Eng. Abdel Salam El-Gabaly
Chairman of the Agriculture and
Irrigation Committee at the Senate

Under the topic:
"Water Challenges in Egypt... Causes and Solutions"
