

During the last period, the Egyptian Ministry of Tourism adopted ambitious strategies & plans to meet all the challenges which the sector has suffered for many years, especially the outbreak of the “Corona” virus, where these efforts have managed to overcome those challenges and return Egypt to its leading position on the global tourism map.

With the recovery of the tourism sector and its continuous supporting efforts, investment opportunities in Egypt are significantly increasing for the private sector in a way that enables investors to participate in those plans aiming to stimulate tourism & develop its infrastructure, so that Egypt remains the preferred destination in the global tourism market.
