

The Ministry of Communications and Information Technology has adopted an ambitious strategy to build a digital Egypt, which aims at digital transformation and launching Egypt towards the future, as many initiatives and technical projects have been launched as well as plans to develop infrastructure to achieve this goal. Indeed, the fruits of these efforts have appeared in overcoming the repercussions of the Corona epidemic on society, which allows the information technology sector to remain the main engine of growth and the basic pillar of economic development.

this context, Canada Egypt Business Council and the Egyptian Business Council for International Cooperation will hold its next forum which brings together
